

HISTORY OF TRADITIONAL CHINA

History C362

Instructor: M. Singer
Office: H-401-5
Office Hours: By appointment (879-7200)

Format: The format - tutorial or seminar - will be determined by the enrolment.

Required Readings:

The following required texts are available at the SGW Bookstore:

- Birch, An Anthology of Chinese Literature from Early Times to the Fourteenth Century
- Creel, Chinese Thought from Confucius to Mao Tse-tung
- DeBary, Sources of the Chinese Tradition Vol. I
- Hucker, China's Imperial Past

Term Papers

Each student is required to select a theme in Traditional Chinese History and - in consultation with the instructor - assemble a reading list of approximately ten (10) titles. The student will be expected to submit an essay of no more than twenty-five (25) pages no later than the first class meeting in March.

Examinations

There will be essay-style examinations in December and in April.

Grades

December Exam 20% Paper 30% April Exam 30% Class Participation 20%